

INDIAN PANORAMA 2014 REGULATIONS

1. SHORT TITLE

These Regulations may be called the Indian Panorama - 2014 Regulations and shall come into force with immediate effect.

2. DEFINITIONS

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise refers,

- (a) “Board” means the Central Board of Film Certification.
- (b) “Directorate” means the Directorate of Film Festivals, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.
- (c) “Indian Panorama” is a Section of the International Film Festival of India. “Indian Panorama” means the group of films selected in terms of the provisions given in these Regulations for participation in National and International Film Festivals.
- (d) “Producer” includes an individual producer(s), a production company(s), Government department(s) or a Government recognized Institute that produces a film.
- (e) “Right Holder” means the owner of the negative who is authorized to order prints of cinematographic films on the laboratory for a particular film and copyright holder of the film (in case of digital films).

3. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The aim of the Indian Panorama, organised by the Directorate is to select feature and non-feature films of cinematic, thematic and aesthetic excellence, for the promotion of film art through the non-profit screening of these films in:

- (1) International Film Festivals in India and abroad
- (2) Indian Film Weeks held under Bilateral Cultural Exchange programmes and Specialized Indian Film Festivals outside cultural exchange protocols.
- (3) Special Indian Panorama Festivals in India

4. SECTIONS

The Indian Panorama will have the following sections:-

- (1) Feature films, and
- (2) Non-feature films

5. INDIAN PANORAMA

A maximum of 26 feature films and 21 Non-feature films (including the Best Feature and Best Non-feature films from 61st National Film Awards, 2013), distinguished by cinematic, thematic and aesthetic excellence selected in accordance with the conditions and procedure laid down below will feature in the Indian Panorama.

6. ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS

The following conditions must be fulfilled by all entries:

6.1 The film should be in any Indian language. The Phrase 'any Indian language' would mean all official languages of the State/Union Territories of the Indian Union, all other Indian languages included in Schedule VIII of the Constitution of India and such other languages and dialects that may be permitted by the Government of India from time to time.

The producer shall also supply, on request of the Directorate, additional publicity material to the Directorate to facilitate the participation of the film in various festivals as detailed in Regulation.

9.6 The National Film Development Corporation will also have the right to buy one print of each of the films selected for the Indian Panorama at a cost not exceeding the actual price of the raw material and processing charges.

9.7 The authorization in form IP-II shall be made use of by the National Film Archives of India, Pune for preservation and archival purposes. The authorization in forms IP-III shall be made use of by the Directorate for the purposes and manner mentioned in Regulation 11, only in case a film is selected for the Indian Panorama.

RETURN OF 35mm Print/ DCP / Bluray or DV Cam.

35mm Print/ DCP/ Bluray or DV Cam of films not selected will be returned to the producers shortly after the final meeting of the Selection Panel. The Directorate shall bear the cost of returning the 35mm Print/DCP/Bluray or DV Cam to the address of the sender.

11. USE OF INDIAN PANORAMA FILMS

11.1 The Indian Panorama films will initially be screened at the Indian Panorama Section of the International Film Festival of India, provided that no claim of any kind would lie against the Directorate for their inability to show a film due to technical or any other reasons.

11.2 Out of the films selected for Indian Panorama, three films will be nominated for the Competition Section of 45th International Film Festival of India. The Indian Panorama films will be used for participation in various international film festivals, film weeks, Indian Panorama festivals and other non-commercial screenings, within the country and abroad at the discretion of Directorate of Film Festivals and the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting. For all such screenings, the producer will not be eligible for any payment. He/ She will however, be kept informed of such screenings.

11.3 The films selected for Indian Panorama will also be considered for the Centenary Award proposed to be given in the 45th International Film Festival of India. The award carries Rs 10,00,000/- and a silver peacock.

11.4 The prints purchased by the National Film Development Corporation under these Regulations will be utilized for organizing Indian Panorama Festivals and will not be utilized for any commercial purposes. The Indian Panorama Festivals will be organized by the Directorate of Film Festivals and National Film Development Corporation in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the Government of India.

12. ARBITRATION

Should any dispute or difference arises between the Producer and the Directorate, the same shall be referred to the Secretary, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India, whose decision in the matter shall be final and binding on both the parties. The Arbitration Clause will not apply on the decision of Juries, which will be final and binding on both the Directorate of Film Festivals and the applicant for Indian Panorama.
